I hereby freely and voluntarily waive these rights in order to enter into this stipulation as a resolution of the pending allegations against me.

3. I understand that in signing this consent order I am enabling the Board to impose disciplinary action upon my license without further process.

III.

1. Based upon the foregoing stipulation, it is agreed that the Board may issue a decision and Order upon this stipulation whereby real estate appraiser license number LRA-157, issued to Respondent Lee Moerles, is hereby suspended for a period of thirty (30) days; provided however, said suspension is stayed and Respondent shall be placed on probation for a period of one (1) year commencing on the effective date of this Consent Order, subject to the condition that Respondent shall obey all federal, state and local laws, and all rules governing the practice of appraising real estate in the state of Idaho.

2. A violation of the terms of this Consent Order by Respondent will result in the termination of the stay and an order of suspension will issue. The Board therefore retains jurisdiction over this proceeding until all matters are finally set forth in this Consent Order.

Re: In the Matter of Lee Moerles
Before the Board of Real Estate Appraisers
Case No.

Dear Mr. Moerles:

This letter is written pursuant to Idaho Code § 67-5254(1) and serves as notice that the Idaho State Real Estate Appraisers Board intends to commence an administrative action to seek discipline against your license to appraise residential real estate in the state of Idaho. This proposed disciplinary action concerns your appraisal of the property located at 3049 W. Ravenhurst, Meridian, Idaho.

At this stage, you have two options:

1. Set this matter for a hearing to determine the facts; or
2. Stipulate to the violations in a proposed stipulation to be presented to the Board for their approval.

If you choose the first option, the Board will hear or appoint a hearing officer to hear the evidence, make findings of fact and conclusions of law and recommend the appropriate discipline, if any. The Board would make the final determination.

If you choose the second option, we will stipulate to the facts, the violations and a proposed disciplinary settlement and present the Stipulation and Order to the Board for their approval.

Where the parties disagree to the facts, a formal hearing before a hearing officer is essential. Where the only issue is the appropriate remedy or discipline, then a stipulation to the facts is a viable alternative.

If you are interested in pursuing the stipulation to the violation and discipline, please sign the enclosed Consent Order and return it to me no later than December 5, 1994. I will then present it to the Board at their next meeting for their approval. If I do not hear from you or receive the signed stipulation by that date, I will assume you contest the facts and will set the case for a hearing before the Board or an appointed hearing officer.

If you have any questions regarding the foregoing or the enclosed Consent Order, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours very truly,

NICOLE S. MCKAY
Deputy Attorney General
